Medical Center closed on Tuesday after 2:15 p.m. except for emergencies due to staff in-service training

Blue Angels to headline Huntsville Air Show

The U.S. Navy's Blue Angels will bring their world-renowned jet demonstration to an air show March 29-30 at Huntsville International airport. Admission is free, but there is a charge for parking. The event is open from 10 a.m.-4:30 p.m. both days. The Marshall Center will showcase International Space Station and microgravity science exhibits, as well as displays on the Centennial of Flight. NASA exhibits include Johnson Space Center's Space Station exhibit, "Space Station Imagination," comprised of two 48-foot trailers linked to form a mock-up of two modules of the Station.
